THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY
RACIAL MATTER

Reference is made to a memorandum entitled "Black Panther Party, Racial Matter" dated November 19, 1968, which reported a Free Huey-Cleaver Rally held at the Trade Technical College, Los Angeles, California, on November 17, 1968.

The following is a transcript of speeches made by Melvin Newton, Minister of Finance of the Black Panther Party (BPP)(See Appendix); Bobby Seale, Chairman BPP, and Leroy Eldridge Cleaver, Minister of Information of the BPP at the Free Huey-Cleaver Rally on November 17, 1968, provided by source who has provided reliable information in the past.

The following is the transcript of Melvin Newton's speech:

"One of the major party, political party convention was held in the worlds largest slaughterhouse, Chicago right in the stockyards. Now the theme of the times is law and order and that's what Huey Newton and Eldridge Cleaver are all about - law, order and justice. Law and order as it is used, is simply a euphemism later to commit them for racism in America. Huey and Eldridge believe in justice for the people along with law and order and they always have. Those of you who have read something about the history of Huey and Eldridge realize that their whole lives, even when they were very young, relate to this very kind of thing. As children, Huey and Eldridge were by definition in relationship to the system that we have relevant...they had not so completely conceptualized the movement as we know it today and each of these men have gone through the various changes in their development and now as we reach the point of leadership for 'em. Let me tell you this all, I start out by saying that Huey and Eldridge belong to the people and I would like to elaborate in particular on Huey and his belonging to the people. Huey comes from a large family and he was the youngest in that family. He was the baby to the family. He's not here so I can say that, and the object was and my father taught us that in the day of his slums things would be different and he thought it would happen in a very different way than we realize now from our fathers (incoherent) so-called education. As Huey went through grade school, Huey noticed a very peculiar kind of education. He was being educated in white superiority. He was being educated that he was going to be at the underside of society and all those like him. It has been man against the school system, and the ritual, the brain-washers. Huey was by definition a delinquent and a criminal and a mischief and the same can be applied to Eldridge Cleaver. Of course just as America has the various astute analysis of our system and the conclusion has been drawn is that the black community by definition is criminal because that's the definition of criminality, the kind of life that the people in the ghetto must live. Yet the interesting thing is that the crime statistics supports it, because the kinds of crimes that are reported and reported as these kind problem are the kind of thing that people are forced to do for a living or have access to, like when we start talking of white collar crimes and that's a different story. (Applause) We know that this is the most costly kind of crime but let's look at how we deal with it, if we reflect the moment, we know that some of those local, criminal courts and as a result of that come in statistically as a crime, but if you have permission and administration that deals with this in most cases, and it doesn't come out like that, OK. Huey and Eldridge as children.

"Huey's next phase was a student. Huey was a student of law, a student of sociology, and psychology. The problem was as viewed by the school system and the social system, is Huey no matter how the school system insisted that he become an IBM card he insisted upon exploring and finding something out, and he took the concept and used it as education really should be essentially showing him how to get information and that's what he did.

"There was the next phase of Huey's life was somewhat nationalistic. You don't pull yourself up by your bootstraps when you don't have any boots and no straps, and when Huey discovered that the black man had no straps on his boots he decided we'll put the straps on the boots, so we could pull ourselves up. Straps were put on the boots we are familiar with but of course that would (incoherent) system and the pigs said nay nay uptight. Now during this period of law student, Huey talked with me and said that, 'I can't continue to a law student because I have to run the Black Panther Party and I can't do both at the same time and besides I have no use for learning a law or attempting to apply a law that is not applicable to the black community nor is it applicable to the general community but rather be applicable to the capitalist'. You see, Huey viewed America as it has arised today as a prostitute with the capitalistic as the pimp. (Applause) Huey included Eldridge Cleaver into his Black Panther Party and Eldridge Cleaver says 'amen'. Now, the intent is of course to rehabilitate America by burning out a cancer, but what has happened to Huey is that, if any of you read the probation report carried by the newspaper, I don't

THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY
RACIAL MATTER

know if it got down here or not, but it was up north, he was a you see before he was sentenced he got a report from the probation department and the statement was that Huey overly reacted to a unspecial situation. He always has, and he also refuses to adjust to his environment. Ironically, this is a, this is true. (Applause) But the probation officer didn't really know what he was saying, he had something different in mind. Now Huey is in jail, Eldridge is left up to so-called authority, is on his way. It's gonna be up to us to do something about both and there are some very specific things we can do, and I am sure the committee is going to dealing with those. We got petitions now on behalf of Eldridge as you all know. We want to continue to do that, because what we are learning is that the will of the people, as stated by Huey and Eldridge, is greater than the system that harbors technology. We--Huey's been doing two to fifteen. Huey, of course, was left up the parole board and the correction, department of correction (incoherent) all that two to fifteen, but there are somethings that we can do in order to try to get bail for Huey and also to support the attorney in getting a retrial. We can do that by educating the public both the black and white, because you see, I see our society and our public is broken up into several groups, and some of them we can deal with. We have so-called militant, and I say so-called that's the title we're familiar with, who are educated, know what's happening politically and socially and also in the black community, we have another faction that we're learning to use (incoherent) a functional Uncle Tom. (Applause) So we can't put the functional Uncle Tom down because I want this Defense Committee in Los Angeles to use the functional Uncle Tom's for what they are good at, 'cause although they may do certain things between certain hours of the day on their job or whatever they are, after dark, they can share whatever it is they gain with you. You can call each other names on television and then get together later and have a drink. (Applause) In the white community, you also have the new radical who are trying to deal with the executive system by various ways, various means, so we don't need to dwell on that because we already have somewhat of an alliance. But where we also figure at is the committee is trying to deal with a new-the enlightened racist. Now, in the white community, you have some racist that, there's only one way to deal with them and that's, we not even talk about that, they're useless, but you also run across some enlightened racist. They don't a need to sit around, you don't need make them, force them to sit around nursing their guilt about being racist because enlightening racist knows that he is a racist, but he says a in spite of my being a racist, I have (incoherent) and we don't have to ask him to directly act in behalf of, in fact, I don't ask anyone to act for another group or another individual but act for yourself. You see often you will find these people will come and say, you know like a Eldridge and Huey, black folks and radicals, a constantly asking themselves you know, it bothers me and I am tired of it and, you know, what do you want, what can I do. What can I do for my sake? Don't do anything. Just as long as you choose side and you choose sides quickly. If you find it in yourself that they annoys you so much and you want to react to that dirt, get get with the John Birch Society, become a Minuteman, let's have a confrontation, deal with it that way. Now they say, I don't want to do that, well OK then, you do the next best thing, whatever it is you that have the ability to do, then you do that, you have a mind like I, or if you are amenable to the program, then you can follow the program, but what I am saying in effect is what we're going to have to do with the committee is use everyone that we can use in the fashion that they can be used best, and in that way a I feel that we can use more of the community then we could otherwise in our petitions, in our demands and in our support of the attorney, a political supports and also financial because a there's going to be a great need. That we are laying very much in the red in terms of a just direct (incoherent) a secretarial a running an office, a briefs, a nut even counting lawyer that we've got to pay. That is going to be necessary because what we are doing is a many things politically but we can politically support a legal battle now. This is the battle of Huey and Eldridge belongs to all of us, to all the public, to all Toms, the enlightening racist, as well as those others that we know as allies because the things that can come out of these two cases and will result in complete-they will completely a revolutionalize the judiciary system in this country, you see because what we are going after I am sure Mr. Garry will elaborate upon this in some detail, is a community kind of determination of a persons criminality or the persons in it. That is what we are talking about. A I am not going to talk thoroughly about this. From time to time, I will be coming to Los Angeles to a meet with a and deal with the community as it exists and I hope to see many more of you working with a the members here when they contact you. I hope you will give a very positive a reply to them and do your thing. Power to all the people, and Panther Power to the Vanguard."

The following is the transcript of Bobby Seal's speech:

"That's a lot of hand clapping. If all those hands put themselves together as a unified force you'd be surprised what you can do (Applause). You know the Black Panther Party was started by two people and this is what exists now--people who have been formed, and educated, some of us have been killed by the pigs. Lots of people are becoming very

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY
RACIAL MATTER

aware of the necessity of the (incoherent) racist exploited power structure. We become aware of it with respect to what the power structure has done, and is trying to do to a our Minister of Defense Huey P. Newton and our Minister of Information brother Eldridge Cleaver. I guess a one of the things that a some of the people have to be aware of a is what exactly went down with the Black Panther Party. I don't have much time but I can give you some information and what exactly Huey P. Newton put into motion and how Eldridge Cleaver and the rest of us went forth to a keep this machine, this revolutionary machine, the Black Panther Party moving in such a fashion that the racist power structure becomes affected, but it becomes affected by the basic desire to lead the people. You hear a Ronald Reagan talking about Eldridge Cleaver cussing. You hear a Ronald Reagan talking (incoherent), but I going to say that a the most derogatory word in the English language, especially when its practiced, where it has been practiced by the racist Ku Klux Klan and racist pig in this country for hundreds of years is a four letter word that spells K-I-L-L, kill (Applause). Now somebody come into your home take a baseball bat and start whipping you aside the head and you weren't cussing, I'd call you a damn fool. (Laughter and Applause). You ought to be cussing. I'm gonna cuss Ronald Reagan out from one end of this country to the other, (Applause) because I (incoherent) black people, Mexican-American, Apache Indians. The third world throughout the world are chained against the racist, the racist exploited wall. We're chained against this wall. That big steel plate against our arms and big spikes fall in place against this wall. Alot of people see this black man, black race, poor people of the world chained against this wall and he's up there cussing, wants to get a loose. -Alot of people want to sit down and say what are you cussing about. The brother says because I'm chained

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY
RACIAL MATTER

against this wall, and then people say, uh, well I just go to college you know and the molecular structure of that wall is just 90 per cent space and the wall is really not...(Applause) And many of you a functional Toms are sitting down trying to analyze this particular wall we're chained against--racists, slaughterhalls, this treachery and murderers. All right. Two out of the 50 black rebellions in the last four years since July of 1964, from the Harlem riots, they call it, one of these spikes break...one of these spikes that hold this black brother's arms trying to get a loose, and Wallace, and Reagan, and Humpty Dumpty, and Tricky Dick all ready to holler, all ready to give a holler-law and order, pick up the hammer and nail the spike back in the wall. (Applause) This is basically what happened, but what Huey P. Newton put in motion was some kind of organized thing on the part of the people to pull the spikes out of the wall and get these plates, these chains that have us let down in the wretched ghetto to move it away. We're saying the next step of the people is to understand they going to have to pick up a crowbar and pull the spikes out of the wall. We want to free Huey P. Newton and we want to keep, and we intend to keep and intend to free Huey P. Newton and Eldridge Cleaver out from the clutches of this great repressive system that's led by the Tricky Dicks, the Humpty Dumptys, the pig Wallaces and the Mickey Mouse Ronald Reagans and Donald Duck Raffertys. (Applause and Laughter) And what Huey P. Newton put into motion was the action of this black man, this black race is (incoherent) to see the purpose of the people who are oppressed around the nation, around the world. What Huey P. Newton put into motion was certain activity to do that. Meanwhile, I'm gonna talk about the brainwashing of the nation as a whole and black people part responsible for this.

"Those Mickey Mouse comic books you read and how you read about Donald Duck. The pig is telling you that if you're not acting like Donald Duck or Mickey Mouse...all those clear kinds of views that are suggested in these books in Archie and Jughead and comic books and Veronica and this crap (Laughter) he's calling you a villain, a criminal that's what he does, a villain. Huey says that the word villain comes from the old German oligarchy and villain is related to one who comes from the village, the poor people of the village. People who are oppressed because they're a criminal and a (incoherent) because he wants to get some land, some bread, some houses, some education, some clothing, some justice, and some peace...because you get so hungry brother that you go out and you tell all the people in the bank, you don't give a damn what color they are, get up against the wall. I want some of this bread, I want some money, and I want my share. That's what you tell them because you're tired, and sick and tired, you've been living in the environment for twenty years, your half-way confused that you get the proper perspective, that you go to the proper perspective of how you can survive until you commit an act against the establishment that gets you some bread to get you some security. For Huey P. Newton lets organize these brothers to run out this individually so they can really feel the social ills of the system and deal with them in a revolutionary fashion. A pig walks up to us and treats us unjustly. A pig walks up and tries to brutalize us, we got to shoot back, we got to put some 00 buckshot back in their butts. (Laughter) We got to fix them, 357 magnum bullets. (incoherent) brother let them know we're there. That we're really tired, we intend to break loose from this racist wall, and we tell a lot of people pick up the proper tools don't pick up the tool that the oppressor tells you to pick up. He'll put a hammer in your hand and tell you to nail the spike back in the wall but the Panther tells you to pick up a crowbar and pull the spikes out of this wall and to help cuss Ronald Reagan out, or stay away. That's what next have to be done, ruin his political career, ruin it. He jumped on Eldridge Cleaver and he got ruined. He got ruined, cause a hundred thousand students when he spoke up and down the state got up and used the four letter word and said (obscene) Ronald Reagan. (Applause) We (incoherent) people have to move and get hip...people have to move, your energys, your money, your funds, everything. When corrupt tyrannical oppressive fools are running the system when corrupt tyrannical fools in every major metropolis, wherever black people live. Thousands of pigs immobilized--machine guns.

"Just last night my brother got stopped for a ticket in front of the Central Headquarters up in Alameda County and I walked down to the pig and asked this pig and one brother come up and asked what you doing messing with this dude here and three of four pigs vamped on him and he pulled away from them and struck one of them and started running and ducked. The pig shot at the brother. I walked up to the pig, one of them there, said how the hell does it feel (Laughter) I said, "uh, I was down at the office a little while ago" and I said, "which one of you pigs shot at that brother?" "Oh, I don't know who shot at him, uh, one of those fellows over there." I said, "well, what's your badge number, I want to see whether you're lying or not." "Well my number is 250, right here is," you know, and he backed up because he scared Bobby Seals and Eldridge Cleaver would mobilize some 00 buckshot in his rump. You know (Laughter) and thats where it's at.

"The people have to mobilize in the same fashion, and put these racists, exploit politicians, who run this country into a situation where the people would have the power, where power really goes to the people. Black power to the black people, Mexican power to the Mexican-American people, and Apache power to the Apache people, and you just think about it--this is what going to have to be done. Take a (incoherent) and understand Huey P. Newton is talking about our spirit of living in the man's technology, the mobilization of the pig forces, his bombs, his anti bombs, anti, anti tanks, his anti missiles, anti anti anti missiles and all the crap. We have to understand that superman is no more...superman is a chump and always has been. We have to understand that we don't believe in these comic books that have brainwashed us, we have to understand that we have to deal it with the racist power structure. We have to understand that the people are going to mobilize the power. We're saying now that Eldridge Cleaver and Huey P. Newton are president, president (incoherent) president. People who come forth to move and see that Eldridge Cleaver is not sent back to prison. People will mobilize to see that Huey P. Newton has his feet put on the ground as president for all the people"(long pause) (applause) (tape changed at this point)

The following is the transcript of Leroy Eldridge Cleaver's speech:

"A lot of people these days are asking me how do I feel about it. They are asking me a how can you stand it. I just like to say that I am happy about it. I am not unhappy about it. I am not surprised about the way that the pigs of the power structure are reacting. I am not intimidating about it and I am not going to be tricking my tail begging them to forgive me because everything I have done, anything I have tried to do if it has caused them any trouble at all, I'm glad (Applause). glad. I am very glad to be a problem to them in any way or another. I have been a problem to them mostly all of my life. The part that I am concerned about, for many years I was also a problem to myself. I have been in and out of reform schools, in and out of prisons always here from Los Angeles. This is my home. I lived in Rose Hills which is known as the marijuana capitol of the world. I mean that's what a we used to describe it. I used to get out on the street, sell it, smoke it, dig it (Applause) I went to the penitentiary for that, I went to the penitentiary for that, I got out and I got carried away and I went to the penitentiary for some other things. After I got out of the penitentiary for the last time, I decided that the way that I had been functioning, the things I was into, wasn't leading me in the direction that I wanted to go. I wanted to go that way, and I always ended up that way. So I decided to take a few fundamental reappraisal to check myself out the way that I was functioning and to make whatever changes were indicated. So I did that, and I thought that the people who patrolled the prison system, the people who patrolled the parole department, I thought they would be proud of me, I thought they would be willing to point at me and say, "well, here's a man who went through our system and went outside and started functioning in the liberation movement." (Applause) I mean that maybe naive of me, now I know it was, because when I was committing crimes, I always had trouble with my parole officer, he was always, he knew that I was committing crimes because he knew I was up to no good, but he didn't give me so much trouble and they never took me back until I committed another crime. They never framed me, but I found out that when I got out and started talking about politics, started talking about freedom, started talking about the liberation movement, that is I explained to the people, why Huey P. Newton should be set free not only did I incur the wrath of my parole officer, the entire department of corrections (incoherent) the pig on the parole board and Mickey Mouse Ronald Reagan and its hard to say who else. It looks like they all screaming about Eldridge Cleaver and all I can do is talking about the grievances of the people. I don't know how to resolve that. I am not going to try to resolve it. I am going to defend myself against their sense of resolving the way they want to resolve it and I am going to leave it to you to resolve it in behalf of the people because I cannot deal with this much longer. I cannot deal with it. (Applause) We have three category of evils: the avaricious business men, the demagogue of politicians, and the racist pig cops and we will never, whether I am here, in the penitentiary or on top of the moon, stop talking about them, stop talking to people about how to deal with them and urging people to become active in the opposition against this racist and decadent system because it has to be changed whether the pigs or the power structure like it or not. Because this system, this system is the number one obstacle to human progress on the face of planet earth. That's what it is. There's an old saying that a ruling class never learns anything from the lessons of history and I think we have ample evidence that this is true, that in the chance of world wide uprising of the people against exploitation, against imperialism, against racism and against all the evils that suffocate the world today, we find politicians so greedy for office, so greedy for the continuation of the system, so decrepit, so depraved and so degenerate that they're willing to go to any length to grab the reins of power and if it takes to drive the world over a precipice and to utter chaos, they are willing to do that and we say you say that the people must rise against this, take an unyielding stand against this, no matter what the price. Our life is not worth that much we could be run over by a car, we could die from cancer of cigarettes, there are so many ways that a person can lay down your life, but I prefer to put my life on the line raging and moving against the pigs of the power structure because I realize that if we in America don't move now, then those big bombs will never befall and we have no guarantee that whatever we do here will stop that. Because we know that if you have one mad man in the White House now and another bad man perhaps even madder from Whittier, California, standing in the wings, a warhawk, a bald nose degenerate pig, Richard Milhouse Nixon (Applause) We know, we know him because he is our home boy. (Laughter) And California has (incoherent) special debt to the people and Los Angeles in particular, because here is where Disneyland is, the home, the fine place for Mickey Mouse Reagan, of creatures like Donald Duck Rafferty and whatever other Frankenstein concoction they may have waiting in the wings, we don't know. We have all the hyped-up scriptwriters in Hollywood who can take the most polluted evil and write out a script and get a make-up man and force it off on the people as the man qualified to hold public office. I say that Los Angeles, Los Angeles you have to do something about Hollywood, you have to do something about Disneyland, you have to do something about all of these tricky mechanisms that being evolved in your territory and you relegate people into power who really don't have any minds at all. The only thing they have is the ability to smile on cameras, and to regurgitate filth and to lure the people to the ballot boxes to put them into office. But we have four, we have four very uncertain years before us. Four years under the rule of Richard Nixon with Nixon's cabinet, with an army controlled by Richard Nixon faced with a world that's not going far no matter who they put in there and we are not going to be exempt from the results of that because I say this, that if Richard Nixon escalates the war, if he moves the way I think he is going to move, to exceed even the excesses of Lyndon Johnson if he drops another atomic bomb on any of the people in the world, I hope that Mao Tse Tung will shoot every hydrogen bomb he has over here on Babylon (Applause) shoot it over here. He can drop it on top of my house, drop it on top of my house with me in it, if I am there, if I happen to be in the prison drop it on top of my cell, but don't let Richard Nixon get away, don't let him get away (Applause). He can't get away with that. This is the country that brags and likes to say it has we never lost a war, that it has never lost a battle, that it has never lost an argument that it has always been right, through cruel propaganda and manipulation they are able to take defeat and turn it into victory. But we know from checking it out that they have never won a war, that they have never won a battle, and they have lost all the arguments, because from the very beginning of this country they have been suffering slavery, and genocide right here in Babylon and you cannot win any just cause as long as that continues. It continues now--black people in this country are oppressed, Mexican-American people are oppressed, the Chinese-American people are oppressed, the Puerto Rican people are oppressed and white people in this country are also oppressed, but they used to think they were liberated, they used to think they had all the rights until they started trying to exercise them and you find that the pigs of the power structure sit there and organize guns and force, billy clubs and mace

to put them back into their place. (Applause)
-This is what's happening. We want power for all people. We say that every ethnic group no matter where it's found, has the natural right to control its own destiny. After those rights, no ethnic group can be subjected to the manipulations and control of other ethnic group and this is what we've had going on in this country from the very beginning when the Anglo-Saxon came here, followed by the Irish. When the Irish got here, they found themselves confronted by Anglo-Saxons who treated them, well you know what it says in history, you take the history out and you find that when the Irish came here during what the potato famine in Ireland in 1848, the year that Karl Marx wrote the "Manifesto". You find this you find this that when the Irish got here they were confronted by Anglo-Saxon cops, the prisons were full of Irishmen and the courts were filled with Anglo-Saxon judges, all the police stations were full of Anglo-Saxons cops, and the Irish picked up the guns, they picked up dynamite, they began to organize unions, labor unions, and they moved against the power structure to liberate their people and they succeeded somewhat in that because right here in Los Angeles now you have a Chief of Police and I'm told that he's Irish. I know that in San Francisco we have a Chief of Police Cahill and he's Irish and New York the Chief of Police is Irish and we have a whole rogues gallery of police chiefs and they all seemed to come from Ireland; or their ancestors did. And later on when the Italians began to come to America about 1888, 1898-uh--1870 something like that, not to accurate on those dates-- they found themselves confronted by Irish cops and Irish judges and they did what the Irish had to do when confronted by the Anglo-Saxons, they picked up the guns, they picked up the dynamite and they moved against the power structure for their declaration by any means necessary and they had some success in that because in San Francisco, our Mayor is Joseph Alioto. And now we find other oppressed people particularly the Mexican-American people who are involved in a strike against those who grow the grapes and Italian Swiss Colony wine and that not a figment of anyones imagination. We find Georgio, we find the grape growers throughout the San Joaquin Valley and Caesar Chavez knows very well that they are the descendants of the immigrants who came here and who had to struggle against the Irish who came here and who had to struggle against the Anglo-Saxons, you see,--and we join with the Mexican-American people in struggling against those of a step of the ladder above us who are pressuring us in disregard of history and continuing in the same process of ethnic rivalry and trying to scramble through the melting pot up into the power structure. We say we're gonna put an end to this ethnic rivalry because the only salvation for the world is for people to start discovering nonethnocentrics because the world will not stand for that. (Applause) The world will not continue, the world will not continue to go through the same changes it has been going through for these hundreds of thousands of years--the world has become a community, the world has to become a neighborhood and it is necessary for people to start transcending boundaries of race, color, and creed. We have to stop this lip service to that and make it a reality or the world is going to be destroyed and you make no mistakes about it. (Applause) Make no mistakes about that--and people like to say that is impossible, that it can't be done, but I believe that what I see in history is that there have always been people who are from the (incoherent) have been able to arise to whatever task lay before them, and the task that is before us today is nothing more and nothing less than getting out of the bag of ethnocentrism zenophobia, race hatred, and moving beyond that so can all realize our humanity and destroy orderly everything and anything whether it be a political system, police force, chief of police, president, a supreme court, a United Nations, no matter what it is. If it stands in the way of the realization of these ideals, it has to go into the garbage can of history and we will not (incoherent) stand for it, later for it. It's got to go. (Applause)

"We say that there is no conflict on the face of the planet earth that can't be resolved. We say that the conflict in the Middle East between the Arabs and the Jews can be solved-- it can be solved, if we here in this country take a look at the foreign policy of the United States of American and stop this racist, beastly, country from arming both sides indirectly or directly. It can be stopped. (Applause) The oppression that we have against the black people in South Africa can be stopped--background comments (Laughter). That's my lawyer. (Laughter and interference) Don't mess with him, you'll have some problems if you mess with Charles Garry. Don't mess with Charles Garry...what's going on in South Africa can be stopped if Nelson Rockefeller was grabbed by his ears and dragged out of Chase Manhattan Bank and told him that the investment that he had in South Africa now belonged to the South African people. (Applause) It can be stopped... if they pulled the American troops out of the Far East and turned Chiang Kai Chek over to Mao Tse Tung (Applause) turn Chiang over to Mao Tse Tung... hunt Batista down and turn him over to Fidel Castro. We say that we must create a world where there will be no sanctuary for tyrants so that when we have our revolution here in American, Richard Milhouse Nixon will have no place to go. (Applause)

Huey P. Newton says that the spirit of the people is greater than mans technology and we must understand that the propaganda that they put on us is all calculated to confuse us and to make us think that we've gotten in such a complicated situation that there is nothing that the people in this country can do to institute the type of government that will be functional for the people and to assist them with the demands of our time and, I promised that I wasn't going to curse when I came up here because we are adding support to our defense committee (missing portion of speech not recorded.) So that a big cops outside arresting people, they arrested a couple of people a moment ago, but that can be dealt with...I didn't see Charley Garry get excited..we have other (incoherent) here that will be dealt with all of the penitentiarys of the world. We're going to tear those walls down from both inside and out and release all the people who been oppressed by the system. (Applause) They don't understand how was it that the Black Panther Party confronted by very vicious (a) police forces that move against us-- move against us openly, that have been shooting us and killing us and how it is that we maintain a consistency and we refuse to go off into a racist bag. I just want to say that Huey P. Newton and Bobby Seals when they organized the Black Panther Party they did this after much experience and other organizations that were interested in black liberation. They checked out the operations of various ideologies, they speculated upon where all that would lead to and they came to the conclusions that it has always led to disaster. When a party or people even out of desperation to be liberated if they started to practice the same philosophy that was practiced upon them and inflicted upon them by the oppressor and they understood. They understood that is really not true when they say you have to fight fire with fire. They know that you have to fight fire with water. You see to each his own. So that we had attacked

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY
RACIAL MATTER

from other organizations in the black community that had gone a little too far and that began to formulate and to incorporate through their ideology and principles of racism but we never got uptight about the attack, because we understood that time would tell, that being consistent, taking a forthright position, and defending that position against all who attack it that this is the principle way to do things and black people in particular are not going to buy it--racism because they have a history of struggling against racism and they don't want it, they're not going to have it. They maybe influenced to listen to it for a while if it comes in a spectacular manner but ultimately they're going to recall against it. And I think that's (incoherent) indicated, because when we first started organizing defense for Huey P. Newton, we weren't in any frame of mind to be jiving or to be catering and pandering or to words and rhetoric that weren't going to bring about the results that we wanted. We took a long look at the situation and we said we wanted the best lawyers that we could get and we want as many people as we can get to rally to the banner of Huey P. Newton...and we took a poll of attorneys, and we asked them which attorney would you want if you were in this position and they said Charles R. Garry and we went to see Charles R. Garry and we're not sorry that we did that. People who went go down to the courthouse on the day that Huey will appear for trial or for some process or proceeding, there would be fighting from the Peace and Freedom Party to come down and we had brothers and sisters who are hung up in cause for nationalism and they stood up on the steps of the courthouse and refused to march in the line around the courthouse because they couldn't relate to white people--but we understand that--I used to be a jailhouse movement minister and you know I understand that--I can relate to that, but I also

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY
RACIAL MATTER

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

understand that, but I also understand that's not the solution to the problem of the black people-- that we have to be strong enough while not yielding, not being Uncle Toms, no bootlicking, no selling out, but also be able to realize that there are white people, brown people, red people, and yellow people in this world who are totally dedicated to the destruction of this system of oppression and we welcome that. Glad about that, and always be open to working with them. It is necessary to put emphasis on that and I realize that the course of (incoherent) in the black community are not our major enemies, they're not our major problems--white racism, ethnocentrism, the arrogance of people in power--those are the major enemies--and we will never confuse the two. (Applause) We will never confuse the two, but while we recognize--while we recognize that we have to strike at the major enemy, we must never lose sight of the fact that we must strike at our other enemies also and rule out of our thought rule out of our philosophy any negative aspect which gonna curtail the movement and slow its development because the only way we're gonna be liberated is to speed up time. We need a streamlined ideology, we need a streamlined organization, and we need a streamlined relation with other streamlined people who are ready and willing to move against this system and we don't care what color you are, we only care whether your heart is and where your mind is and if you practice what you preach. (Applause) I'm thoroughly convinced, I'm thoroughly convinced that particularly the young white people in this country have no choice no choice but to make a break, a total break with the decadent heritage of the country, with the racism in the history of this country and to strike out a new, even though they don't know exactly where it might lead to. But to have to strike out and move to the future, if there's gonna be one, if we're gonna have it we have to drag this from the mouth of a roaring lion. You got to do that

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

THE BLACK PANTHER PARTY
RACIAL MATTER

and that's the only way its gonna be done...young black people, young white people, young Mexican-American people--listen, I'm not unaware that you have a lot old people in all ethnic groups but that have always been consistent in the opposition to the system, but you have to admit they represent a scattered few and even though they represent a scattered few, we don't close the doors to them... if we go around saying you can't trust anybody over 30, when someone over 30 comes along--I'm 33, dig it--if someone over 30, if someone over 30 comes along with a receding hairline and he feels we can trust him, we're gonna trust him and we have to realize that we're not going to be bound by some principle that's been thrown around in the heat of battle...it's sometime said (Interference with microphone and end of speech)."

APPENDIXBLACK PANTHER PARTY

Also Known As

Black Panther Party for Self Defense~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, BPP Minister of Defense. NEWTON is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther", which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service", states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, GEORGE MASON MURRAY, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement "...we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it".

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 2106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

GOOD EVENING, EVERYBODY. Kind of stuck for words tonight. I don't know whether this is a hello or a goodbye. I talked to my parole officer today, and he told me that on Wednesday the 27th he wanted me to call him up about 8:30 in the morning, so he could tell me where to meet him so he could transport me to San Quentin. They want to have a parole revocation hearing, and I guess they think they have a right to do that. They certainly are proceeding as though they have a right. Having had some experience with them, I know that when they have you in their clutches, they proceed with what they want to do whether they have a right or not.

officials as they do with cops: they think that in some sense they are guardians of the law; that they're there to protect society, and everything they say is the truth; that there's nothing wrong with what they're into, and nothing wrong with what they're doing. Well, I know. Not so much in my own case, but from the cases of others that I've observed in the various prisons in the State of California. There are a whole lot of people behind those walls who don't belong there. And everybody behind those walls is being subjected to programs that are not authorized, nor related to the reasons for which they were sent there.

Rehabilitation in the State of California is less than a bad joke. I don't even know how to relate to that word, "rehabilitation." It presupposes that at one time one was "habilitated," and that somehow he got off the right track and was sent to this garage, or repair shop, to be dealt with and then released. Rehabilitated, and placed back on the right track. Well, I guess that the right track has to be this scene out here: the free world. Convicts call us out here the "free world." After you're behind those walls for a while, I guess it starts looking like the Garden of Eden. They can't see all of the little conflicts that are going on out here. Alioto [San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto] doesn't look as much like Al Capone from that distance. That's right. Al Capone, Alioto—Big Al. Alley-oop Oto. You know. People yearn, people yearn, behind those walls, to return to the free world. To return to society. To be free, and not to be returned to the penitentiary.

Now, when I went into the penitentiary I made a decision. I took a long hard look at myself and I said, well, you've been walking this trip for a little too long, you're tired of it. It's very clear that what you had going for yourself before you came in was not adequate. While you're here you're going to have to work with yourself, deal with yourself, so that when you get out of here you're going to stay out. Because it was pretty clear to me that that was my last go-round, that I could not relate to prison any more. So I guess I developed something of a social conscience. I decided to come out here and work with social problems, get involved with the Movement and make whatever contribution I possibly could. When I made that decision, I thought that the parole authorities would be tickled pink with me, because they were always telling me to do exactly that. They would tell me I was selfish. They would ask me why I didn't start relating to other people, and looking beyond the horizons of myself.

So I did that, you know. And I just want to tell you this. I've had more trouble out of parole officers and the Department of Corrections simply because I've been relating to the Movement than I had when I was committing robberies, rapes and other things that I didn't get caught for. That's the truth. If I was on the carpet for having committed a robbery, well, there would be a few people up-tight about that. But it seemed to be localized. It didn't seem to affect the entire prison system or the entire parole board. They didn't even seem to have much time to discuss it, you know. They run you through their meetings very, very-briefly. You feel that your case is not even being considered. But I know that now my case is constantly on their desks, and my parole officer doesn't have very much to do except keep track of me. He wants to know where I go, how much money I make each month, where I'm living, when I'm going to go out of town, phone him up when I get back to town, and ask his permission to do this and that.

THERE'S SOMETHING MORE DANGEROUS about attacking the pigs of the power structure verbally than there is in walking into the Bank of America with a gun and attacking it forthrightly. Bankers hate armed robbery, but someone who stands up and directly challenges their racist system, that drives them crazy. I don't know if there are any bankers in the audience tonight, but I hope that there are. I hope that there's at least one, or a friend of one, or somebody who will carry the message to one. And I hope particularly that there's one here from the Bank of America. I heard today on the news that brother Cesar Chavez has declared war on the Bank of America. The Bank of America is Alioto's bank. My wife told me this evening that she received a phone call from the Bank of America saying that they were going to repossess our car because we were three months behind in our payments. That's not true, but I wished that I had never paid a penny for it. I wished that I could have just walked onto that lot and said, "Stick 'em up, motherfucker! I'm taking this." Because that's how I felt about it. That's how I feel about it now. I don't relate to this system of credit—see it now, take it home, pay later . . . but make sure you pay.

It was only out of consideration for the atmosphere that I would need in order to do the other things I wanted to do that I didn't rip it off. Or that I haven't walked into the Bank of America. Or that I haven't walked into any other establishment and repossessed the loot that they have in there. So I don't know what they expect from me, see? I haven't committed any crimes. I don't feel there's a need for rehabilitation. I don't feel the need of going back to Dirty Red's penitentiary. Warden Nelson? [Warden of San Quentin] The prison guards call him Big Red, but the convicts call him Dirty Red. He's sitting over there across the bay and he's waiting for me, because we have a little history of friction. He doesn't like me. My parole officer doesn't like me. He tells the newspaper writers, "Yeah, I think he's a real nice fellow. I think he's made an excellent adjustment. If it wasn't for this particular indictment brought against him, I'd be perfectly willing to have him as my parolee from now on." Yet if you go down to the parole department and ask them to let you see my file, you will find just one charge against me, other than those lodged against me in Alameda County, which are yet to be adjudicated. I haven't gone to trial for those. I have pleaded "Not Guilty" to them. The one legitimate charge they have is "failing to cooperate with the parole agent."

The first time I saw that, I couldn't understand what it meant, because I bent over backwards to cooperate with that punk. So I asked him, "Just what does that mean? What's the substance of that?" Now this is going to really surprise you. He said, "Do you remember when you went to New York to tape the David Susskind Show?" I said, "Yes, I remember doing that."

"Remember I told you that when you got back you should give me a phone call and let me know you were back in town?"

"Yes, and I did that, didn't I?"

"No, you didn't do it. That's against the rules."

And that's the only thing that they have in my file that is even debatable. All the other things that they are hostile towards me for, they can't put in the files because it's against the law. It's contrary to the Constitution and they would be ashamed to write it down on paper and place it in my file. They probably have another file that they smuggle around between them. But they cannot come out and tell you one thing that I've done that would justify returning me to the penitentiary.

I just have to say that I didn't leave anything in that penitentiary except half of my mind and half of my soul, and that's dead there. I have no use for it. It's theirs. They can have that. That's my debt to them. That's my debt to society, and I don't owe them a motherfucking thing! They don't have anything coming. Everything they get from now on, they have to take! I believe that our time has come. A point has been reached where a line just has to be drawn, because the power structure of this country has been thoroughly exposed. There is no right on their side. We know that they're moving against people for political purposes.

There's a favorite line of mine. It says that there is a point where fortune ends and cowardice begins. Everybody is scared of the pigs, of the power structure. The people have reason to be concerned about them because they have these gestapo forces that they issue orders to. They come in with their clubs and their guns, and they will exterminate you, if that's what it takes to carry out the will of their bosses.

I don't know how to go about waiting until people start practicing what they preach. I don't know how to go about waiting on that. Because all I see is a very critical situation, a chaotic situation where there's pain, there's suffering, there's death, and I see no justification for waiting until tomorrow to say what you could say tonight. I see no justification for waiting until other people get ready. I see no justification for not moving even if I have to move by myself. I think of my attitude towards these criminals—my parole officer included—who control the prison system, who control the parole board. I can't reconcile things with them because for so long I've watched them shove shit down people's throats. I knew there was something wrong with the way that they were treating people. I knew that by no stretch of the imagination could that be right. It took me a long time to put my finger on it, at least to my own satisfaction. And after seeing that they were the opposite of what they were supposed to be, I got extremely angry at them. I don't want to see them get away with anything. I want to see them in the penitentiary. They belong in there because they've committed so many crimes against the human rights of the people. They belong in the penitentiary!

WHEN YOU FOCUS ON THE adult penitentiaries, you're looking at the end of the line, trying to see where a process begins. But if you really want to understand and see what's behind the prison system, you have to look at Juvenile Hall. You have to go down to Juvenile Hall. That's where I started my career, at about the age of twelve, for some charge. I don't know what it was, vandalism. I think I ripped off a bicycle, maybe two or three bicycles. Maybe I had a bicycle business, I don't remember. But it related to bicycles. They took me to Juvenile Hall, and it took me about six months to get out again. While I was there I met a lot of people. I met a lot of real, nice, groovy cats who were very active, very healthy people, who had stolen bicycles and things like that. Then I moved up the ladder from Juvenile Hall to Whittier Reform School for youngsters. I graduated from there with honors and went to another one a little higher, Preston School of Industries. I graduated from that one and they jumped me up to the big leagues, to the adult penitentiary system.

I noticed that every time I went back to jail, the same guys who were in Juvenile Hall with me were also there again. They arrived there soon after I got there, or a little bit before I left. They always seemed to make the scene. In the California prison system, they carry you from Juvenile Hall to the old folks' colony, down in San Luis Obispo, and wait for you to die. Then they bury you there, if you don't have anyone outside to claim your body, and most people down there don't. I noticed these waves, these generations. I had a chance to watch other generations that came behind me, and I talked with them. I'd ask them if they'd been in jail before. You will find graduating classes moving up from Juvenile Hall, all the way up. It occurred to me that this was a social failure, one that cannot be justified by any stretch of the imagination. Not by any stretch of the imagination can the children in the Juvenile Halls be condemned, because they're innocent, and they're processed by an environment that they have no control over.

If you look at the adult prisons, you can't make head or tail out of them. By the time these men get there, they're in for murder, rape, robbery and all the high crimes. But when you look into their pasts, you find Juvenile Hall. You have to ask yourself, why is there not in this country a program for young people that will interest them? That will actively involve them and will process them to be healthy individuals and lead a healthy life. Until someone answers that question for me, the only attitude I can have towards the prison system, including Juvenile Hall, is tear those walls down and let those people out of there. That's the only question. How do we tear those walls down and let those people out of there?

People look at the point in the Black Panther Party program that calls for freedom for all black men and women held in federal, state, county and municipal jails. They find it hard to accept that particular point. They can relate to running the police out of the community, but they say, "Those people in those prisons committed crimes. They're convicted of crimes. How can you even talk about bringing them out? If you did get them out, would you, in the black community, take them and put them on trial and send them back again?" I don't know how to deal with that. It's just no. NO! Let them out and leave them alone! Let them out because they're hip to all of us out here now. Let them out. Turn them over to the Black Panther Party. Give them to us. We will redeem them from the promises made by the Statue of Liberty that were never fulfilled. We have a program for them that will keep them active—24 hours a day. And I don't mean eight big strong men in a big conspicuous truck robbing a five gas station for $75.* When I sit down to conspire to commit a robbery, it's going to be the Bank of America, or Chase Manhattan Bank, or Brinks.

I'VE BEEN WORKING WITH Bobby Seale on the biography of Huey P. Newton. Bob Scheer and I took Bobby Seale down to Carmel-by-the-Sea. But we went away from the sea. We went into a little cabin, and we got a fifth of Scotch, a couple of chasers, a tape recorder and a large stack of blank tapes. We said, "Bobby, take the fifth, and talk about brother Huey P. Newton." And Bobby started talking about Huey. One of the things that just blew my mind was when he mentioned that prior to organizing the Black Panther Party, he and Huey had been planning a gigantic bank robbery. They put their minds to work on that because they recognized that they needed money for the Movement. So they sat down and started trying to put together a key to open the vault. But as they thought about it, they thought about the implications. Bobby tells how one day while they were discussing this, Huey jumped up and said, "Later for a bank. What we're talking about is politics. What we're talking about essentially is the liberation of our people. So later for one jive bank. Let's organize the brothers and put this together. Let's arm them for defense of the black community, and it will be like walking up to the White House and saying, 'Stick 'em up, motherfucker. We want what's ours.'"

So there's a very interesting and a very key connection between insurrection and acts carried out by oneself, a private, personal civil war. We define a civil war as when a society splits down the middle and you have two opposing sides. Does that have to be the definition? Can 5000 people launch a civil war? Can 4000, 3000, two or one? Or one-half of 1000? Or half of that? Can one person? Can one person engage in civil war? I'm not a lawyer. I'm definitely not a judge, but I would say that one person acting alone could in fact be engaged in a civil war against an oppressive system. That's how I look upon those cats in those penitentiaries. I don't care what they're in for—robbery, burglary, rape, murder, kidnap, anything. A response to a situation. A response to an environment. Any social science book will tell you that if you subject people to an unpleasant environment, you can predict that they will rebel against it. That gives rise to a contradiction. When you have a social unit organized in such a way that people are moved to rebel against it in large numbers, how then do you come behind them and tell them that they owe a debt to society? I say that society owes a debt to them. And society doesn't look as though it wants to pay.

There's a young brother over at Juvenile Hall in Alameda County right now by the name of Gregory Harrison. He's about fourteen or fifteen years old and he's the leader of the Black Students Union at Oakland Tech High School. At this moment they have him over there charged with insurrection. They've charged him with insurrection because the Black Students Union on that campus wants black history added to the curriculum. They want an environment created on their campus—not one that will teach black people how to be black, but one that will remove the restraints, so that they can just be themselves, and their blackness will automatically flourish. Like you don't have to teach a rose how to turn red, or teach a tree how to grow leaves. You just leave it alone and don't pour salt on its roots, and it will be a rose, or it will be a tree.

THIS PIGGISH, CRIMINAL SYSTEM. This system that is the enemy of people. This very system that we live in and function in every day. This system that we are in and under at this very moment. Our system! Each and every one of your systems. If you happen to be from another country, it's still your system, because the system in your country is part of this. This system is evil. It is criminal; it is murderous. And it is in control. It is in power. It is arrogant. It is crazy. And it looks upon the people as its property. So much so that cops, who are public servants, feel justified in going onto a campus, a college campus or high school campus, and spraying mace in the faces of the people. They beat people with those clubs, and even shoot people, if it takes that to enforce the will of the likes of Ronald Reagan, Jesse Unruh, or Mussolini Alioto.

Have you ever seen Alioto on television? When you see him will you swear that he doesn't frighten you, or that he doesn't look like Al Capone? Alioto reminds me of convicts that I know in Folsom Prison. And this is not a contradiction. When I speak up for convicts, I don't say that every convict is going to come out here and join the Peace and Freedom Party. I'm not saying that. Or that he would be nice to people out here. I'm not saying that. Yet I call for the freedom of even those who are so alienated from society that they hate everybody. Cats who tattoo on their chest, "Born to Hate," "Born to Lose." I know a cat who tattooed across his forehead, "Born to Kill." He needs to be released also. Because whereas Lyndon B. Johnson doesn't have any tattoos on his head, he has blood dripping from his fingers. LBJ has killed more people than any man who has ever been in any prison in the United States of America from the beginning of it to the end. He has murdered. And people like prison officials, policemen, mayors, chiefs of police, they endorse it. They even call for escalation, meaning, kill more people. I don't want it. The people who are here tonight, because I see so many faces that I recognize, I could say that I know you don't want it either. There's only one way that we're going to get rid of it. That's by standing up and drawing a firm line, a distinct and firm line, and standing on our side of the line, and defending that line by whatever means necessary, including laying down our lives. Not in sacrifice, but by taking pigs with us. Taking pigs with us.

I cannot relate to spending the next four years in the penitentiary, not with madmen with supreme power in their hands. Not with Ronald Reagan the head of the Department of Corrections, as he is the head of every other state agency. Not with Dirty Red being the warden. If they made Dr. Shapiro [San Francisco psychiatrist and long-time supporter of the Panthers] the warden of San Quentin, I'd go right now. But while they have sadistic fiends, mean men, cruel men, in control of that apparatus, I say that my interest is elsewhere. My heart is out here with the people who are trying to improve our environment.

You're even a bigger fool than I know you are if you could go through all of these abstract and ridiculous charges, all of these overt political maneuvers, and think that I'm going to relate to that. Talk all this shit that you want to, issue all the orders that you want to issue. I'm charged with a crime in Alameda County and I'm anxious to go to trial because we can deal with it. We're going to tell the truth, and the pigs are going to have to tell lies and that's hard for them to do, especially when we have with us technicians such as the Honorable Charles R. Garry [Huey Newton's attorney]. I'm not afraid to walk into any courtroom in this land with a lawyer like Garry, because he can deal with the judge and the prosecutor. But don't you come up to me telling me that you're going to revoke my parole on a charge for which I put in nine years behind the walls, and for which I was supposed to receive my discharge next month. Don't you come up to me talking that shit because I don't want to hear it.

DETAILS:

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 1/14/69

On January 9, 1969, Special Agent (SA) [redacted] while off duty at his residence, 1 Jodi Lane, New City, New York, observed PAUL JAMES KRASSNER appearing as a guest on the MERV GRIFFIN television program. The program, which was pre-taped, was presented on Channel 5 T.V., New York City from 8:30 PM to 10:00 PM.

The program was moderated by ORSON BEAN who filled in for MERV GRIFFIN. The other guests who appeared on the program as panelist were Dr. JOYCE BROTHERS, OTTO PREMINGER and JACKIE VERNON. Also present was ARTHUR TREACHER, the program announcer.

While discussing the word "revolution" with moderator BEAN, KRASSNER stated "ELDRIDGE CLEAVER of the Black Panthers, I just came back from interviewing him in exile and--" BEAN stated "You can't say where he is--". KRASSNER stated "obviously not--". BEAN stated "They would go and get him--". KRASSNER replied "Yeh or me".

BEAN made comment that it was not fair of CLEAVER, to the people who posted his bond, to have jumped his bail. KRASSNER replied that "his friends think he did the right thing in running out on his bail".

KRASSNER stated "There's a law that the FBI Director retire at seventy. JOHN EDGAR HOOVER isn't obeying that law". BEAN stated "There's a law that the President can waive that law".

KRASSNER stated "The whole yippie thing is kind of an international thing in the sense that young people all over the world are protesting against the dehumanization that goes on, whether it happens in a capitalist country or a communist country, the target is dehumanization".

BEAN asked KRASSNER "Do you think boys in Vietnam should lay down arms and refuse to fight anymore?" KRASSNER replied "They should get out before they lay down their arms."

I can't tell people now who are resisting the draft now. The time to do it is when that line is drawn". KRASSNER further advised "People have to do what they believe is correct".

OTTO PREMINGER, Hollywood producer, when interviewed commented, "If KRASSNER talked like he does on international youth behind the Iron Curtain, he would be shot".

PREMINGER further stated to KRASSNER "You don't appreciate rights of others".

NY 100-161321

On January 13, 1969, Special Agent [REDACTED] discussed the aforementioned appearance of PAUL JAMES KRASSNER on the Merv Griffin Television Show [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] with Assistant United States Attorney ANDREW J. LAWLER, of the United States Attorney's Office in the Southern District of New York.

Mr. LAWLER indicated he could see no violation of the law on the part of KRASSNER within the Southern District of New York, and felt that this matter should properly be discussed with the United States Attorney's Office in San Francisco, California.

LEROY ELDRIDGE CLEAVER SHOULD BE CONSIDERED

SOURCE BELIEVES SHE MAY HELP HER HUSBAND IN HIS WORK FOR "RAMPARTS" MAGAZINE. AFTER THIS PHIL OCHS, A FOLK SINGER, SANG THREE SONGS. THE LAST SPEAKER WAS ONE DEXTER ALEXANDER, A WOUNDED GI AT WALTER REED ARMY HOSPITAL. HE SPOKE VERY BRIEFLY BUT SAID HE WAS TIRED OF WAR AND WANTED TO SEE THE WAR ENDED IN VIETNAM. THE RALLY ENDED ABOUT TWO^{THIRTY} P.M. AND THE MARCH BEGAN. THERE WERE NO DISORDERS BUT THERE WAS SOME HECKLING OF THE SPEAKERS.

AN SA OF THE FBI AT APPROXIMATELY NINE P.M. WAS PRESENT AT THE COUNTER-INAUGURAL BALL WHEN PHIL OCHS APPEARED IN CONCERT. AT ONE POINT IN HIS PERFORMANCE OCHS CALLED NIXON AND JOHNSON "TRAITORS" AND SAID THAT NIXON SHOULD BE IN JAIL, NOT IN THE WHITE HOUSE. OCHS SAID THAT HE RENOUNCES HIS CITIZENSHIP TOMORROW AND CALLED NIXON'S INAUGURATION "THE DAWN OF ANARCHY." HE THEN DEDICATED A SONG ABOUT ANARCHY TO "THE LATE RICHARD MILHOUS NIXON AND THE LATE COUNTRY."

Dear

Your letter and its enclosure were received on December 17th.

The concern which prompted you to contact me is understood and I appreciate your bringing this matter to my attention. The FBI has conducted a considerable amount of investigation regarding the subversive movement which threatens our country today. Being a strictly investigative agency of the Department of Justice, we furnished the results of our inquiries to the Attorney General for his opinions with respect to prosecution in these matters.

I can assure you this Bureau is aware of its responsibilities with respect to the internal security of our Nation. You may be certain we will continue to discharge our duties with the highest degree of thoroughness and dispatch.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE CONTINUED: this letter was probably written around 12/4/68 and was not mailed. The letter from [REDACTED] is a 3-page typewritten letter of generally unrelated events. He does mention in letter that Eldridge Cleaver is alive and living in the Washington Square Park arch. The letter is obscene in nature. Upon approval of this letter, it is suggested it and its enclosure be furnished to the Special Investigative Division and the Domestic Intelligence Division, in that order, for any additional action deemed appropriate.

To my knowledge, he is still there as of this date, most certainly was there on Dec. 4.

Our relative, suspecting something wrong going on, intercepted a letter of his to New York, written around Dec 4, 1968 on the pretext of going to mail it at the Post Office. Instead he mailed the letter to me, sealed, Our relative has no idea of the contents of this letter, which we received today. It is undated & unsigned, but unmistakably his.

You may well imagine our shock & chagrin upon reading it. We really do not know what to do, except I am sure, we must call this to the attention of your Agency. The contents smell of criminal conspiracy or worse. It is unbearable from our point of view.

We are imploring you for assistance. If there are truly criminal and subversive activities being undertaken by this organization at the address indicated, we fervently hope you can take appropriate action, before anyone is hurt.

We are ready to receive your advice and assistance, at your earliest convenience. Please write to letterhead address.

Regretfully,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

On Jan. 9, 1969, I happen to be watching the Merv Griffin Show on the C.B.S. network.
One of the interviews was with the editor of the magazine "THE REALIST". He said, "I have just returned from an interview with Eldridge Cleaver", who I understand is wanted on a federal warrant for interstate flight.

My question, "how does this person know where this fugitive is hiding?"

Wishing you the same expedient results

AMERICAN EXILES HERE NAME NEGRO 'PRESIDENT'

Black Panther fugitive Eldridge Cleaver will be "inaugurated president-in-exile of the United States" in absentia in Toronto on Monday—the day Richard Nixon is installed in Washington.

The ceremony, organized by a six-man exile inaugural committee of the Union of American Exiles, will be held at 44 St. George St. It will be followed by a march to the U.S. Consulate on University Ave.

"There," committee spokesmen said last night, "an appointed representative of the president shall present instructions concerning the U.S. government to the U.S. consul general.

"These orders shall be directed towards the ending of American imperialism, the ending of exploitation of Black Americans and ... of the poor." B. J. J. J. J. 1748

The spokesman, Doyle Abernathy, 21, and Ernest Paea, 21, claimed the "inauguration" of Cleaver, who is wanted on bail jumping and assault charges, is being held "in accordance with the wishes of the community of American exiles in Toronto as expressed overwhelmingly in balloting held Nov. 7."

They said 130 of about 7,000 Americans in Metro voted, 60 per cent of them for Cleaver.

Information from informants and other investigation reflects that [redacted]

[redacted] In addition to the information received from informants that [redacted]

[redacted] on February 10,
1969, [redacted] was reached at this location by telephone on 2/16/69 by a pretext phone call.

In view of the above, it is requested that the Bureau grant permission to review the telephone toll calls for the above phone numbers and consider granting permission to have mail addressed to [redacted]

[redacted] checked on a regular basis. It is believed that the above two techniques could very likely lead to the location of the subject.

The U. S. Attorney, San Francisco, has declined to issue a Federal Grand Jury subpoena for toll call records.

The San Francisco Office certifies that in connection with this, full security can be assured in obtaining these records [redacted] and in obtaining

The February 25, 1969, issue of the "University Washington Daily" campus newspaper, Seattle, Washington, on page seven carried an article entitled "Cuba - A New Society", which carried an interview with WILL REISSNER, conducted the previous week "as he prepared to give a talk on his travels in Cuba". [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

b7C

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The Seattle Branch of the SWP is characterized in the appendix section.

The interview as it appeared in the "University Washington Daily" is as follows:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"The interview began with an inquiry into the reason for going to Cuba.

"REISSNER: The Cuban government invited 14 members of the Young Socialist Alliance to come to Cuba. When I heard that YSA had chosen me, I jumped at the opportunity. I thought it would be a real chance to see the revolution at first hand - some of its problems and its progress.

"DAILY: What are some of its problems and short comings?

"REISSNER: It's quite clear right after you get down there that consumer goods are quite tight - food is rationed, gasoline is rationed, and there is no doubt that Cubans have a hard life as far as material goods are concerned.

"DISTORTED IMPRESSION

"Looking at it from an American point of view you get a distorted impression. I was very glad I came all the way through Mexico by bus which took over 50 hours, because I got a chance to see the Mexican countryside. I had spent time in Mexico before and looking at the comparison between Mexico and Cuba you get the problem in Cuba put a little more in perspective. But it is true that consumer goods are very short and life is hard in Cuba.

"Looking at it in a positive way the thing I was most impressed with was the spirit of the people. The average person in the street has a feeling that he is helping create a new society and the whole country is operating on the basis of social experiment. Especially in the sense that they are trying to make a new type of man who operates on the basis of cooperation and not on the basis of greed.

"DAILY: You went on a Cuban government tour. Do you think that it was prejudiced?

"REISSNER: We were assigned two guides to take us around when we wanted to go places. I found the things they

b6
b7C
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

wanted to show us were undoubtedly the best things they had in Cuba. When they took us to a factory the chances are that it would be the most modern factory. But they made no bones about that.

"They were very proud of the accomplishments they had made in the 10 years since the revolution, and they were proud to show us those accomplishments.

"If we had been there a short time and had just seen things they had shown us, I probably would have gotten a distorted impression of how the average person lives. But in the three weeks after the tour was over and I was waiting for a boat to take me back, I managed to go around quite a bit on my own; particularly in Havana.

"Even when we were on these tours we were allowed to go around quite a bit on our own at night and talk to people. They were totally unconcerned about our going out at night because they really had very little to fear.

"OVERWHELMING MAJORITY

"The overwhelming majority of the people do support the revolution. They make no bones about it that there are those who oppose it; they are not afraid to have you run into somebody that opposes it.

"For instance, they will tell you that 100,000 people are signed up to go to the United States and the attitude of most Cubans is that they wish they would hurry and leave.

"DAILY: How do the Cubans compare themselves to other Communists?

"REISSNER: The Cubans have a feeling they're building a much better form of Communism than exists in the Soviet Union and eastern Europe. The Cuban students who have been in those countries and have come back are very upset with what they have seen there. For instance, they feel Cuba is a much more free country. The people participate much more in the life of the country, and there is much more enthusiasm for what's going on.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

b6
b7C
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"One of the things they stress in Cuba is that they are using moral incentives to work harder and produce more as opposed to the Soviet Union and eastern Europe where they use material incentives. If you work harder you get paid more and you get special bonuses. In Cuba they hardly use that at all. They have a slogan on signs all over the country, 'We want to create wealth through consciousness, not consciousness through wealth.'

"They will continually make comments like: 'In the Soviet Union our students who have been there say things are almost like capitalism, people are so materialistically oriented. While material things are very important, it is also important to have new kinds of relationships between people that are not based on material goods and money.'

"BANK-UP FUNERAL

"The Cubans have this plan to totally eliminate poverty; every time they get a chance they make something free. For example as I have said, by 1970 all rents will be free. Now most rents are free. Now all ball games are free and all local telephone calls are free. Burials for some reason are free. They have a thing about giving people human dignity and they feel everybody has a right to a real bang-up funeral.

"They have all sorts of experimental programs. The Isle of Pines has been turned over to the Young Communist League for development. It has, in the past, been almost totally unpopulated, with only 10,000 people. Now they have 44,000 people who have been moved on in the last two years, mostly young Communist party members who volunteered to go there. The Cubans have a plan to build the first truly Communist place in Cuba on the Isle of Pines.

"They have experimental programs there where the people get all their food free, and they get all their clothing free. All salaries are between two limits, $60 and $180 a month. What the individual is paid is determined by himself. He decides how much he needs between those two limits and that is what he is paid.

b6
b7C
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"It's an amazing concept to think in terms of having an experimental society where everybody determines his own wage level. You have this free-wheeling experimental atmosphere which the Cubans are quick to point does not exist in the Soviet Union.

"At the same time the Cubans are very thankful for the aid they have received from the Soviet Union. It is a balanced picture - on the one hand they think what they are building in Cuba is much more exciting than what exists in the Soviet Union or East Germany, but on the other they are very thankful for the aid.

"One place the average Cuban is in very vehement opposition to the other Communist countries is in terms of the policy of peaceful coexistence that those countries follow. The Cubans have a very revolutionary foreign policy and they think what the Soviet Union does in giving aid to Latin American dictatorships or the Shah of Iran borders on treason.

"DAILY: You have mentioned the spreading of the revolution around the world. Although the Cubans seem to prescribe brotherly love and the sharing of things, how do you explain the need for violence in spreading their doctrine?

"REISSNER: The Cubans are mostly concerned with two areas, Latin America and Vietnam.

"As far as Latin America is concerned, they see there is no way for liberation except through armed struggle.

"At this point almost every country in Latin America is under a military dictatorship. Even in those countries that are theoretically democracies, the left is outlawed, or when it starts getting too strong, the military steps in. They see the traditional politics in Latin America as just a con game. You need an armed struggle that will throw out the native oligarchies and American business interests and totally transform the countries.

"One field where their internationalism is very strong is in Vietnam. There is a fantastic identification by the

b6
b7C

average Cuban with the National Liberation Front. They see Vietnam as taking the pressure off of them for a while, and feel that if Vietnam is defeated, Cuba will be next on the United States list.

"They have signs all over the country saying things like 'Heroic Vietnam our brother in struggle, our comrade and example.' One is a pop art poster of two National Liberation Front guerrillas standing in front of some trees with a city in the background and it says on it in bold letters: 'From the jungle to the city always winning, Heroic Vietnam.'

"You get very much a feeling of identification. For instance, people who have done a bang-up job in production often - not very often - will, as a special reward ask to be sent to Vietnam to fight.

"U.S. CHANGE

"DAILY: How would you speculate on Cuba's attitude toward change in the United States?

"REISSNER: I think there has been a real change in the Cuban attitude towards the possibilities for change in not only the United States but in the other advanced capitalist countries. Playboy had an interview with CASTRO about two years ago, where he said it might be possible for the United States to last for 500 years under the same system before it changed.

"But the rising militancy in the black struggle, and particularly STOKELY CARMICHAEL's visit to Cuba, had a tremendous impact on the average Cuban. For the first time they had the feeling that things were happening in the United States.

"The May-June events in France shook up all of their preconceptions about the stability of the advanced capitalist countries. So now they are very intensely trying to analyze what is happening and what the possibilities are for revolution.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

b6
b7C
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"One thing you find in Cuba is a tremendous identification with the struggle of the black people in the United States. To some extent there is a real overemphasis on the question of armed struggle now.

"We would, for example, talk to black Cubans who would say how much they supported the struggle of their brothers in the United States. Then we would ask them how they thought the struggle could be solved. They would say by armed struggle, or point to a picture of someone holding a submachine gun and say nothing else but that.

"I had arguments with some Cubans over whether or not guerrilla struggle was a viable possibility for the United States. One of them told me he had studied American geography. He didn't see any reason why we weren't up in the hills now starting an armed struggle. They still have a fairly simplistic view.

"But in the government there is a real attempt to come to an understanding of the dynamics of the struggle in the United States. There is a lot of information in the Cuban press about student struggles in the United States. I was able to keep up with what was going on at San Francisco State.

"There were also daily reports about the Black Panthers.

"DAILY: Did you hear anything about ELDRIDGE CLEAVER?

"REISSNER: That was one of the first things I asked them when I got down there, because it was right after he had disappeared. If he is in Cuba the Cubans are playing it very straight. Nobody seems to know. The Cubans whom I spoke to who were not on the highest levels of government, assume he is not in Cuba. I heard about him in the sense that people know who he is and he had gotten very favorable publicity in the press. But there was no mention that he was in Cuba."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ELDRIDGE CLEAVER has been publically identified as Master of Information for the Black Panther Party and was a presidential candidate in 1968 on the Peace and Freedom Party (PFP) ticket.

The PFP is characterized in the appendix pages.

CLEAVER has been convicted of assault with intent to commit murder, assault with a deadly weapon and possession of narcotics. A Federal warrant was issued for CLEAVER on December 10, 1968, at San Francisco, California, charging him with unlawful interstate flight to avoid confinement for assault with intent to commit murder (Title 18, USC, Section 1073).

The Black Panther Party is characterized on the appendix pages.

APPENDIX

BLACK PANTHER PARTY

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by Bobby George Seale, BPP Chairman, and Huey P. Newton, BPP Minister of Defense. Newton is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther," which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service," states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, George Mason Murray, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "... we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

APPENDIX

THE PEACE AND FREEDOM PARTY OF WASHINGTON

The records of the Secretary of State, Olympia, Washington, indicate that the Peace and Freedom Party (PFP) of Washington is a duly constituted minority political party in statutory conformity with the laws of the State of Washington. As a result of a nominating convention held in Seattle, Washington, on September 20, 1966, 276 registered voters qualified as delegates.

A press release issued by the PFP from its office, 512 Wellington Avenue, Seattle, Washington, on September 26, 1966, states the Party's platform is based on opposition to U.S. intervention in the war in Vietnam and declared "that the war is immoral, brutal, and illegal," and asked that American troops be withdrawn. It expressed concern about the grave effects of this war at home; and that preoccupation of the government and the American people with the war in Vietnam is causing the civil rights movement, which the Party supports, to meet with increasing resistance.

On August 24, 1967, a source advised that many communists attended the nominating convention of the PFP upon the urging and insistence of Communist Party leaders and qualified as delegates.

This same source also advised that at the PFP Political Issues Conference held in Seattle on May 7, 1967, Communist Party leaders participated and submitted position papers. A larger number of Communist Party members than at the nominating convention participated and many were elected to Congressional District Committees and representation on the PFP State Committee.

The above source advised on August 24, 1967, that at a meeting of the PFP held in Seattle on August 21, 1967, delegates were selected to attend a conference in Chicago, Illinois.

A second source made available minutes of PFP State Committee meetings held during early 1968. These indicated several present and former Communist Party members continued to function as members of the Committee. These minutes also reflected the PFP's support of draft resistance, abolition of the death penalty and opposition to attempts to revive provisions of the "McCarren Act" declared unconstitutional by the U.S. Supreme Court, as well as continued opposition to the Vietnam war and efforts to field "third party" candidates in the 1968 elections.

APPENDIXSOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY - SEATTLE BRANCH

In May, 1941, a source advised that during the month of May, 1941, the Seattle Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) was reorganized and received official recognition as a branch of the Party from the National Office of the SWP in New York, New York.

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 24, 1965, another source advised the Seattle Branch, SWP, with headquarters at 3815 Fifth Avenue Northeast, Seattle, was an affiliate of the National SWP.

In April, 1966, a third source stated that the Seattle Branch, SWP, executed a statement of resignation from the National SWP, dated April 9, 1966; that they had made reference to the group as the Seattle Branch, SWP (Unaffiliated); and later adopted the name Freedom Socialist Party (FSP) of Washington. This group, led by RICHARD FRASER, formerly a member of the SWP National Committee, and CLARA FRASER, Organizer of the branch, were in disagreement with the National SWP over the questions of the Negro struggle, the colonial revolution, the Vietnamese war, regroupment, woman's emancipation, and party organizational principles.

This source advised that prior to the resignation of the Seattle Branch, SWP, TOM LEONARD and DEBBIE ROBERTS, aka Debbie Leonard, were transferred by the SWP from New York to Seattle, to try to bring back some of the members to the majority line and prevent the entire branch from resigning. They established SWP headquarters at their residence at 5265 - 15th Avenue Northeast, Seattle.

On December 12, 1967, a fourth source advised that JOE JOHNSON, was being transferred from Minneapolis, Minnesota, to Seattle, Washington, to be the Organizer of the Seattle Branch, SWP.

The January 29, 1968, issue of "The Militant" listed the address of the Seattle SWP as 5257 University Way (NE).

"The Militant" is a weekly newspaper of the SWP.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), Page 1, Column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of the YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

On March 10, 1967, a source advised that the YSA was formed during 1957, by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The source further advised that the YSA has recently become more open about admitting that it is the youth group of the SWP and that an SWP representative has publicly stated that the YSA is the SWP's youth group.

The National Headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 532-536, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

On October 31, 1967, a second source advised that at the 22nd National Convention of the SWP held in New York City from October 26, 1967, to October 29, 1967, it was stated that the YSA remained as the main recruiting ground for new SWP members.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

APPENDIXUNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON CHAPTER, YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

In September, 1960, a source advised that in July, 1960, the Seattle Branch of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) was organized and received official recognition as a branch from the National Office of the YSA in New York, New York.

On May 24, 1965, the second source stated the Seattle Branch, YSA, which was affiliated with the National YSA, continued to be active, mainly in the vicinity of the University of Washington district. According to the source, the Seattle Branch, YSA, was directed and controlled by the Seattle Branch, Socialist Workers Party.

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In April, 1966, a third source advised that the Seattle Branch, SWP, executed a statement of resignation from the National SWP, dated April 9, 1966; that they had made reference to the group as the Seattle Branch, SWP (Unaffiliated); and subsequently adopted the name Freedom Socialist Party (FSP) of Washington. This group, led by RICHARD FRASER, formerly a member of the SWP National Committee, and CLARA FRASER, Organizer of the branch, were in disagreement with the National SWP over the questions of the Negro struggle, the colonial revolution, the Vietnamese war, regroupment, woman's emancipation, and party organizational principles.

This source advised that four members of the YSA, who were also members of the Seattle Branch, SWP, signed the resignation statement; and that three members of the YSA who were not SWP members concurrently resigned from the YSA on the basis of the resignation statement.

In May, 1966, this source advised that the Seattle Branch, YSA, had not been reactivated and is not currently known to be functioning as an organization.

On March 3, 1967, a fourth source reported on an application for recognition as a student organization on the campus of the University of Washington, Seattle, on February 16, 1967, indicating that recognition had been given by the University to the formation of a University of Washington Chapter of the Young Socialist Alliance, which would have connections with the Young Socialist Alliance National Office, New York.

On August 8, 1967, the third source reported a flier issued by the SWP and the University of Washington YSA indicated meetings were to be held at 5257 University Way Northeast in Seattle.

The August, 1967, issue of "Young Socialist" listed the address of the YSA in Seattle as 5257 University Way Northeast.

On January 17, 1968, the fourth source advised that the University of Washington Chapter, YSA, was approved as a campus organization through December 31, 1968, and that WILFRID REISSNER is the President.

'Radical' poetry

Dan Georgakas, Hackettstown, N.J.: Ronald Gross has written the usual reasonable enlightened liberal decadent trash about "radical" poetry (Guardian, Jan. 4). His miserable selection of concrete poems from an approach which is extremely limited to begin with, speaks louder than his condescending paragraph about Walter Lowenfels and unnamed black poets. Gross requires half a column for the medium/message "I Am That I Am" and another eighth for the inspirational "Which Side Are You On?"

Is the Guardian putting us on? I don't think so. I think once in a while something has to be dished up for the nuts who write poetry. Maybe we can get a rise out of someone (or a sub). Later on we'll institute a poetry column. Your game is too obvious. What do they (poets) want? People who dig the general layout of the Jan. 4 Guardian will never know.

Cleaver's bail

Godfrey Cambridge, Kathleen Cleaver, Paul Jacobs, Ed Keating and Dr. Philip Shapiro, San Francisco: Eldridge Cleaver has been forced to become a fugitive from political persecution.

The process which resulted in Cleaver's flight from oppression when the Adult Authority of the State of California prejudged Cleaver guilty without having conducted a hearing of any kind. The Adult Authority's action was "officially" prompted by Cleaver's alleged part in an alleged shoot-out between members of the Black Panther party and the Oakland Police Department.

The state demanded an outrageously high bail bond of $50,000. The Black Panther party paid $5000, but in addition to the cash fee, the bondsman required that six people sign a surety bond guaranteeing the $50,000. The signatories to this letter are five of the six who signed that bond, because we believed then that Eldridge Cleaver was a political prisoner, as we believe now that he is a political fugitive.

Cleaver was completely willing to stand trial for the alleged shoot-out, for he was certain, as we were, that his innocence would be demonstrated at the trial.

However, the Adult Authority launched a determined campaign to get Cleaver back into prison. The authority was demonstrating to every parolee in California that they have no rights of any kind and that they can be returned to prison at the whim of the Adult Authority.

Indeed, even if it had been possible for Cleaver to stand trial for the alleged shoot-out and he had been completely exonerated of all charges, the Adult Authority had the power to revoke Cleaver's parole and return him to prison for four more years. We are convinced that the Authority would have done this, and that they would have done so simply because Cleaver is one of the most articulate and militant spokesmen for the rights of black people in America.

Cleaver was faced with the almost inevitable prospect of another four years in jail, regardless of the outcome of his trial. He was convinced from past experience that he faced the gravest risk of being killed in prison because of his politics. He therefore decided to forfeit bail rather than obey the Adult Authority's dictum to return to prison.

We respect his judgment and his right to remain alive. We have no regrets about his action. We accept our responsibility for the ransom payment. To all who believe in freedom, including freedom for those with whom they disagree, Eldridge Cleaver's life is worth much more than $50,000. We now ask those people to share the financial burden. Checks should be made out to: Cleaver Bail Fund, c/o Charles Garry, Atty., 341 Market St., San Francisco, Calif. 94105.

On February 14, 1969, [redacted] advance copy of a book entitled "Eldridge Cleaver" which is scheduled for public release on 2/27/69. The book is a publication of Random House, Incorporated, 457 Madison Avenue, New York, New York.

The book is 211 pages in length and consists of an introduction and a series of articles written by Eldridge Cleaver while he was associated with Ramparts magazine in San Francisco, California.

The introduction is attributed to Robert ~~Scheer~~, who is publicly known as Editor-In-Chief of Ramparts Magazine. 71.5.4.

In the introduction of the book, Scheer relates a story of the subject's life subsequent to his prison days at Soledad Prison in California in 1966. Scheer states "... This collection, then, is not a sequel to Soul on Ice, which was written during the leisure of Cleaver's forced confinement. In this book one finds the art of the journalist, and in that sense it is a first book."...

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency. It and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

ENCLOSURE

Leroy Eldridge Cleaver

He continues "....Cleaver was not in a position to work on assembling this book, as he was with the other, and he bears no responsibility for the particular selections, which are almost entirely from Ramparts and were drawn together while he was a fugitive unavailable for consultation"...

The book itself contains no theme or plot, but the series of articles reflects Cleaver's feelings on a myriad of subjects ranging from his affiliation with the Black Panther Party (BPP) to the officials of the California Adult Authority of the prison system.

A characterization of the BPP is attached hereto.

In relation to the California Adult Authority, Cleaver speaks of two notable members when he states, "... Its chairman, Henry Kerr, was second in command of the Los Angeles police force during its most racist period. The Vice Chairman, Curtis O. Lynum, was Chief Special Agent in Charge of the San Francisco FBI;..."

In connection with Frantz Fanon's book, Wretched of the Earth, Cleaver states that "...What this book does is legitimize the revolutionary impulse to violence. It teaches colonial subjects that it is perfectly normal for them to want to rise up and cut off the heads of the slave-masters, that it is a way to achieve their manhood, and that they must oppose the oppressor in order to experience themselves as men."....

In the article, "The Courage to Kill: Meeting the Panthers," Cleaver states, "...The genie of black revolutionary violence is here, and it says that the oppressor has no rights which the oppressed are bound to respect."...

Leroy Eldridge Cleaver

Concerning California politics, Cleaver wrote "...California had demonstrated its ability to relate to the politics of the absurd by electing to office such blobs of political putty as Richard Nixon and Max Rafferty."...

One of the longest articles contained in this book was a speech given by Cleaver at Stanford University in California on October 1, 1968. In this speech, the subject touches on topics from Ronald Reagan to Karl Marx.

Of Reagan he stated "...I think people are ready to hear someone say (obscene) Ronald Reagan, or (obscene) Stanford University"....

He makes one brief reference to his future status in this speech when he related, "...Maybe when my parole officer comes looking for me, to lock me up, I'll be hiding in the house of one of those white radicals."...

About Karl Marx, Cleaver wrote, "...Let's pay our respects to Brother Karl Marx's gigantic brain, using the fruits of his wisdom, applying them to this crumbling system, and have some socialism, moving on to the classless society. You call it communism. If you get uptight about that, we can redefine that; we don't have to quibble over words, and we can call it a human society."...

BLACK PANTHER PARTY

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY GEORGE SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, BPP Minister of Defense. NEWTON is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther", which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service", states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, GEORGE MASON MURRAY, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "... we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] at Seattle, Washington:

On February 18, 1969, inquiry of Directory Assistance, Pacific Northwest Bell Telephone, Seattle, reflected that the telephone number 622-9928 is assigned to the City of Seattle, and the telephone is located in the men's restroom of the Snoqualmie Room Restaurant, Seattle Center, 320 First North, Seattle.

b7C

On the same date [redacted] Seattle Police Department, advised he is assigned to the police substation, Seattle Center. He stated there is only one telephone available in the Snoqualmie Room and that is in the men's room, telephone number 622-9928. In reviewing the schedule of events at the Snoqualmie Room, [redacted] determined that it had been hired out to the Peace and Freedom Party (PFP) on September 17, 1968, from twelve noon until 10:00 PM the same date. [redacted] believed ELDRIDGE CLEAVER was to have spoken to the gathering in person but was unable to appear. CLEAVER was subsequently nominated for President of the United States by this party.

On February 18, 1969, it was also ascertained through Directory Assistance that the telephone number 543-3507 is assigned to the Neurological Department, University of Washington Hospital, Seattle.

On February 19, 1969, [redacted] was contacted in his office at the hospital. [redacted] stated

[redacted] had been associated with the PFP, however, was not a member. [redacted]

b6
b7C
b7D

[redacted] declined further comment on CLEAVER.

An article in the 'Seattle Times', Seattle, Washington, a daily evening paper, dated October 16, 1968, contained an article pertaining to the coroner's inquest into the October 5, 1968, shooting of a Negro youth by a Seattle Police Officer. The article stated in part, "Dr. JOHN R. GREEN, a professor of Neurology at the University of Washington Medical School, testified in the inquest into the shooting of WELTON BUTCH ARMSTEAD, 17, a member of the Black Panther Party . . ." GREEN testified the victim had been shot in the back by the officer rather than in front as determined by the King County Coroner's Office, Seattle.

THE PEACE AND FREEDOM PARTY OF WASHINGTON

The records of the Secretary of State, Olympia, Washington, indicate that the Peace and Freedom Party (PFP) of Washington is a duly constituted minority political party in statutory conformity with the laws of the State of Washington. As a result of a nominating convention held in Seattle, Washington, on September 20, 1966, 276 registered voters qualified as delegates.

A press release issued by the PFP from its office, 512 Wellington Avenue, Seattle, Washington, on September 26, 1966, states the Party's platform is based on opposition to U.S. intervention in the war in Vietnam and declared "that the war is immoral, brutal, and illegal," and asked that American troops be withdrawn. It expressed concern about the grave effects of this war at home; and that preoccupation of the government and the American people with the war in Vietnam is causing the civil rights movement, which the Party supports, to meet with increasing resistance.

On August 24, 1967, a source advised that many communists attended the nominating convention of the PFP upon the urging and insistence of Communist Party leaders and qualified as delegates.

This same source also advised that at the PFP Political Issues Conference held in Seattle on May 7, 1967, Communist Party leaders participated and submitted position papers. A larger number of Communist Party members than at the nominating convention participated and many were elected to Congressional District Committees and representation on the PFP State Committee.

The above source advised on August 24, 1967, that at a meeting of the PFP held in Seattle on August 21, 1967, delegates were selected to attend a conference in Chicago, Illinois.

COPIES DESTROYED

343 MAY 4 1971 A second source made available minutes of PFP State Committee meetings held during early 1968. These indicated several present and former Communist Party members continued to function as members of the Committee. These minutes also reflected the PFP's support of draft resistance, abolition of the death penalty and opposition to attempts to revive provisions of the "McCarren Act" declared unconstitutional by the U.S. Supreme Court, as well as continued opposition to the Vietnam war and efforts to field "third party" candidates in the 1968 elections.

SUBJECT: BOOK REVIEW
"ELDRIDGE CLEAVER"
BY ROBERT SCHEER
RACIAL MATTERS

b6
b7C

DATE: 2/25/69

This memorandum presents a review of captioned book which is scheduled for public release on 2/27/69 by Random House. The book is being placed in the Bureau library

SYNOPSIS

Eldridge Cleaver is Minister of Information of the Black Panther Party (BPP). He became a Bureau fugitive after his failure to report to California authorities following revocation of his parole. He had been employed by "Ramparts" magazine as Senior Editor. The book is a compilation of writings and speeches by the subject, most of which have appeared in "Ramparts" magazine. [redacted] of "Ramparts" magazine and [redacted] According to [redacted] the book was put together since Cleaver became a fugitive and Cleaver did not make the selections which appeared in the book. The selections included articles showing why the subject joined the BPP, give the subject's explanation of his troubles with the California parole authorities and the reasons he did not intend to return to prison. It covers a variety of other subjects such as why the Nation of Islam influence declined in prisons, an explanation of the colonialism concept of black nationalists and verbal attacks on California Governor Ronald Reagan. There is nothing new in the book and it appears to have been put together hastily, probably in order to cash in on the popularity of Cleaver's best selling book, "Soul on Ice."

DETAILS:

REVIEW OF BUREAU FILES

[REDACTED] is the subject of a Security Matter investigation by the San Francisco Office and is listed as a Key Activist. His name is included in the Security Index on the basis of his close connections with the Communist Party.

BOOK REVIEW

The book includes articles which give Cleaver's explanation as to how and why he joined the BPP and how his involvement in political activities led to the revocation of his parole. Much of three chapters is devoted to attacks on California Governor Ronald Reagan and the last chapter entitled "Farewell Address" consists of a speech he gave in San Francisco 11/2/68 during which he cited the reasons he did not intend to go back to jail on 11/27/68 when his appeal expired. The revolutionary objectives of the black extremists is explained in a chapter entitled "Black Bible." This reviews the ideas of Frantz Fanon who was involved in the Algerian revolution and who formulated the idea that black people are part of the "Third World" made up of all nonwhite people who have been colonized by white imperialists.

The author notes that the chapter entitled "The Death of Martin Luther King: Requiem For Nonviolence" was in the process of being dictated by the subject on 4/6/68 when he was interrupted by a telephone call after which he went immediately to Oakland, California and became involved in a shootout with police. This resulted in his wounding and return to jail. The point of the chapter is that nonviolence is dead; that 1968 would mean "the coming of the gun"; and that "action is all that counts now."

MENTION OF THE FBI

On page 71, mention is made of Robert Williams, the fugitive from North Carolina, who took refuge in Cuba and then in Red China. Cleaver compares Williams and Malcolm X and states that "...in the cloak and dagger world of the CIA and the FBI, Williams has made just as much impact as Malcolm X..."

On page 131, Cleaver discusses laws, such as the gun laws, which have actually been passed for the purpose of reducing the threat from militant blacks although public figures have always given some other reason for such legislation. In this connection he states, "Gestapo Chief, J. Edgar Hoover, states it is the SDS and the Panthers."

On page 146 Cleaver complains of having to pay taxes and states that he will not do so but will instead give the money to the Huey P. Newton Defense Fund. Newton is Minister of Defense for the BPP. Cleaver states "I'm going to write that check, I'm going to sign it myself, and later for J. Edgar Hoover, and later for his mammy..." This is an expression Cleaver regularly uses to indicate that he will resolve some problem with the authorities at a later date.

Cleaver, who was paroled from California State Prison December, 1966, where he was serving a sentence for assault with a deadly weapon, assault with intent to commit murder, and assault with intent to commit rape, failed to report to State Parole Authorities, San Francisco, California, on November 27, 1968, as ordered following revocation of parole. Following the issuance of a state warrant as a parole violator, a federal warrant was issued on December 10, 1968, charging Cleaver with unlawful flight to avoid confinement -- assault with a deadly weapon, assault with intent to commit murder, and assault with intent to commit rape, and parole violation. Cleaver's whereabouts are unknown.

Cleaver is Minister of Information of the Black Panther Party. He was also nominated as the Peace and Freedom Party candidate for President of the United States in the 1968 general election. He is the author of a book entitled "Soul on Ice". Cleaver allegedly has engaged police officers in a gun battle in the past.

A characterization of the Black Panther Party is contained in the appendix.

The Peace and Freedom Party is a legitimate political party that qualified for the 1968 elections in numerous states throughout the United States.

ALIANZA FEDERAL DE MERCEDES
(Federal Alliance of Spanish Land Grant Heirs) (AFDM),
also known as
Federal Alliance of Free City States
(Alianza Federal de Pueblos Libres) (FAFC)

On October 8, 1963, the Alianza Federal de Mercedes (Federal Alliance of Spanish Land Grant Heirs) (AFDM) was incorporated in New Mexico. Its purpose was to acquaint heirs of all Spanish Land Grants with their rights under the treaty of Guadalupe-Hidalgo. REIES LOPEZ TIJERINA was the president, with business and residence address at 1010 Third Street, N.W., Albuquerque, New Mexico. The name of the organization was changed on August 19, 1967, to Federal Alliance of Free City States (Alianza Federal de Pueblos Libres) (FAFC).

On October 26, 1966, TIJERINA and four other members of AFDM were charged in Federal Court with Assaulting a Federal Officer and conversion of Government property, as a result of their land claims, and on November 11, 1967, all were found guilty.

On June 5, 1967, REIES LOPEZ TIJERINA and 19 others were charged in State Court with kidnaping and assault with intent to commit felonies, resulting from entering the Tierra Amarilla, New Mexico, Courthouse with firearms and forcibly holding hostages and shooting law enforcement officers. Charges against all but eleven were subsequently dismissed and the eleven are awaiting trial.

A source has advised that PAT BLAU BLAWIS, Santa Fe, New Mexico, has been advising REIES TIJERINA and claims him as her protege.

On June 28, 1966, a second source advised that PAT BLAU BLAWIS had been elected to the National Committee, Communist Party, USA, at the 18th National Convention in New York City, June 22-26, 1966. (S)(u)

BLACK PANTHER PARTY, aka Black Panther Party for Self Defense

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by Bobby George Seale, BPP Chairman, and Huey P. Newton, BPP Minister of Defense. Newton is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther," which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service," states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, George Mason Murray, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "...we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

Re Bulet to San Francisco, 10/28/68.

Information available to the San Francisco Office regarding speeches delivered by the Subject and compensation received therefrom was in most cases initially provided to this office by the Subject's parole officer. Subject's parole officer maintained current records concerning Subject's travel and income.

Internal Revenue Service (IRS) contacted this office in December, 1968, for information available regarding the CLEAVERS' financial matters and they were provided with information available to this office at that time and advised to contact the California Department of Corrections for first hand information concerning compensation for speeches and salary from Ramparts.

Subject's parole officer subsequently advised he had been contacted by IRS.

San Francisco will not prepare LHM requested in referenced Bulet, UACB.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 1/6/69

A press conference was held on the sixth floor of the Alameda County Courthouse, Oakland, California, on the morning of December 23, 1968, by KATHLEEN CLEAVER, PAUL JACOBS, and ED KEATING.

PAUL JACOBS stated that he and several others guaranteed the $50,000.00 bond for ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, which would be forfeited on June 21, 1969, unless CLEAVER appeared in court in Alameda County. JACOBS said he and his associates feel that ELDRIDGE CLEAVER will be killed if he surrenders to the authorities and, therefore, they feel a moral obligation to help CLEAVER stay out of the hands of the authorities, which in effect would be saving a life. KEATING and JACOBS asked members of the press to publish an appeal for donations to help cover the financial loss which would be incurred if the $50,000 bond is forfeited in lieu of CLEAVER's appearance.

KATHLEEN CLEAVER, under questioning by members of the press present, reiterated she believed that her husband, ELDRIDGE CLEAVER, would be killed by the authorities if he again became under their control. Therefore, it is his intention to stay out of the hands of the authorities if at all possible.

Under questioning, KATHLEEN stated that she did make the statement to the press in New York City in the recent past that she had seen ELDRIDGE CLEAVER in New York. She said this statement was not true and indicated she lied to members of the press in New York City. She stated she had no idea where her husband was at this time, that she did not see him in New York City, and has not seen him since he became a fugitive.

KATHLEEN further stated she has never had $30,000 in her bank account and that the report by the press that she withdrew over $30,000 from her bank account before she went to New York City is absolutely not true. She reiterated she has never had that much money in her bank account, and has never withdrawn that much money from her bank account.

She said the allegation concerning the withdrawal of $33,000 from her bank account as reported by the press is a lie by the FBI to discredit her and her husband in the eyes of the public. She said she feels that this allegation was made by the FBI to keep the public from contributing to the Eldridge Cleaver Defense fund and also to force the Internal Revenue Service to investigate their financial condition. She added that the Internal Revenue Service, as a result of this, already has a judgment against future royalties from her husband's book, "Soul on Ice".

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

Relative to the murder of two Black Panther Party members named JOHN HUGGINS and AL PRENTICE "BUNCHY" CARTER, during January, 1969, the Los Angeles Police Department, shortly after the murder, went to 810 West Century Boulevard, Los Angeles, California, where a search of JOHN HUGGINS' residence was conducted on January 17, 1969. Though the residence belongs to JOHN HUGGINS, it is known that AL PRENTICE CARTER also resided there.

Inasmuch as CARTER and HUGGINS have been known in the past to associate with subject, [redacted] Los Angeles Police Department, was especially mindful of the possibility of subject being in the Los Angeles area. [redacted] thoroughly searched the residence of HUGGINS and seized several weapons and explosives. [redacted] advised property seized had no bearing on the subject or his whereabouts and that should any information be brought to his attention concerning subject's whereabouts, he would immediately contact the FBI.

On January 3, 1969, Assistant Special Agent in Charge (ASAC) FOREST PUTNAM, Albuquerque, telephoned and advised Supervisor [redacted] that a drunk had been put off a Greyhound Bus in Milan, New Mexico, and claimed he was put off while attempting to talk to a Negro man and woman who had pulled a gun on the bus driver. PUTNAM stated that inquiry at the Greyhound Company failed to substantiate this fact and only indicated that the driver had been forced to eject a drunk man at Milan. PUTNAM stated, however, that the bus, which is en route to Los Angeles and due at Los Angeles at 4:15 PM, failed to make a scheduled stop at Gallup, New Mexico, and also at an inspection station upon entering Arizona. He said the bus reportedly arrived in Flagstaff, Arizona, where the driver, [redacted] resides. PUTNAM advised that bus officials indicate receiving information that two individuals on the bus appeared similar in description to subject and his wife.

PUTNAM suggested that [redacted] be interviewed at Flagstaff, and photograph of subject exhibited to him.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] on January 3, 1969:

[redacted] Greyhound Bus Terminal, Holbrook, Arizona, advised that this terminal is not open until 7:00 AM in the morning, and that Greyhound buses passing through the city before that hour, merely use the terminal facilities for discharging passengers. He advised that, according to current bus schedules, a west bound Greyhound bus due to arrive in Los Angeles at 4:15 PM, January 3, 1969, did pass through Holbrook at approximately 3:20 AM. He viewed a photograph of subject (IO #4239) and stated that this was totally unfamiliar to him.

[redacted] Holbrook, advised that his office received a bulletin from the New Mexico State Police during the early morning hours of January 3, 1969 inquiring regarding an alleged attempt to hijack a Greyhound bus due to pass through Holbrook shortly after 3:00 AM. He said the bulletin was vague and non-specific but that, according to routine, arrangements were made to have the bus met by Holbrook City Police officers who questioned discharged passengers and dismissed the allegation as unfounded.

Officer [redacted] Holbrook Police Department, Holbrook, advised that he and Officer [redacted] met and interviewed [redacted] who departed from the west bound Greyhound bus at Holbrook shortly after 3:00 AM this date. He said, according to statements made by [redacted] there was no known attempt to hijack the bus nor any noteworthy or conspicuous disturbance on their ride from Masson City, Missouri to Holbrook. He said [redacted] is presently [redacted]

[redacted] advised that she arrived from her home in Masson City, Missouri with [redacted] at approximately 3:20 AM, this date aboard a west bound Greyhound bus. She advised that during her entire trip, there was no incident aboard the bus which she could accurately describe as disturbing or unusual. She observed that there were approximately eight Negro passengers in the upper passenger deck of the bus where [redacted] were seated, but that, at no time, was any disturbance or loud conversation observed. She further added, that upon departing the bus, she coincidentally encountered an old friend from Masson City who had been seated near the front of the bus on the lower passenger deck. She said that she and this friend conversed for several minutes prior to separating and that this friend mentioned no significant disturbance.

[redacted] Greyhound Bus Lines, Flagstaff, Arizona, advised that he is aware of a reported disturbance upon the west bound bus scheduled to arrive in Los Angeles at 4:15 PM this date because of a vague and non-specific telephone inquiry from his Albuquerque headquarters earlier today. He said, however, the nature of the alleged disturbance and specific details are totally unclear to him and no report of such was made by the bus driver. He advised that [redacted]

He advised that the countenance of these photos is totally unfamiliar to him and that he is reasonably certain that there was no one resembling his person aboard the bus which he drove into Flagstaff during the early morning hours of this date.

b7C

[redacted] advised that the only incident of any note occurring near Milan, New Mexico during his journey the previous night, was the abrupt departure from the bus by a Negro male, who appeared beside him shortly after he exellorated following the scheduled stop at Milan. He said the man grabbed the door lever and stated, "Stop the bus, I want out." He said the man repeated variations of this statement aggressively which caused him some alarm. He said, that, before he could stop the bus, the man forced open the door and discharged himself while the bus was still moving. [redacted] said the man appeared to have been drinking but would not be described by him as intoxicated. He said the man's behavior was definitely eccentric and extraordinary as well as without any explanation.

b7C

[redacted] advised that he did make scheduled stops at Gallup, New Mexico and again at the Arizona Port of Entry but did not telephone his Albuquerque headquarters as customary, inasmuch as he was running late. He said this failure is probably the basis for the bus lines headquarters' consternation.

b6

[redacted] described the man who left the bus as a Negro male, well built, mustache, wearing a sports jacket. He said this man, in no way, resembled LEROY ELERIDGE CLEAVER.

[redacted] further advised that he is quite certain that no incident nor noteworthy disturbance occurred on the bus behind him, inasmuch as two auxiliary bus drivers were riding on the rear seat and would certainly have intervened or at least reported it to him. He said that in the absence of such information from these auxiliary drivers or any facts of his own, he would have to conclude that the alleged incident was either grossly exaggerated or non-existent.
